

Integrated Management System Policy 2019

Policy

The success of our customer is our motivation.	Mastering of new technology	Expansion of strategic partnerships
Systematic identification and implementation of customer requirements	Active cooperation in case of market changes	Open communication and fairness to all interested parties.
Basis of our action is the economic, ecological and social responsibility for society and environment.	Permanent risk management	Systematic recruitment and advancement as well as long-term retention of our human resources to our company
Occupational safety and health protection are integral parts of our management activities.	Commitment to continuous improvement of management system	Permanent reduction of environmental impacts and hazards

Managing directors:

Udo Possin

Bernd Odoj